

Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, Inc.
Board of Directors Screening Committee
Value Statement

Approved July 24, 2018

The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, Inc. Board of Directors places the highest value on the integrity and reputation of the game of women's basketball and believes that every individual, associated with the game of women's basketball, shall protect the integrity of the game through professional and personal conduct that is beyond reproach.

The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, Inc. Board of Directors and its' Screening Committee shall not consider any individual, for induction into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, who has adversely impacted the integrity or reputation of the game of women's basketball or failed to uphold the highest standards of character. In addition, an individual who engages in conduct that has a negative impact on the game following their induction into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, may be removed as a member of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. A recommendation will be submitted by the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Board of Directors Executive Committee to the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Board of Directors for consideration and action.