

Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Mad Lib

Coach for a Day

If I was coach of my _____ (favorite sport) team, I would allow everyone to wear _____ (noun) and _____ (noun) to every practice. Players would not have to _____ (verb) or _____ (verb). We could bring _____ (noun) and _____ (noun) to practice every day and share with the team. Players would give the coaches drills such as sprints, _____ (noun) and _____ (noun). Coaches would also have to write a _____ (number) page report about _____ (favorite sport). Instead of taking buses to the game, I'd have _____ (vehicles) and _____ (animals) take the kids to and from the games. There would be a special _____ (noun) full of _____ (adjective) _____ (noun) after every game for each player. I wish I could be coach for a day.

Pat Summitt - Class of 1999

“Individual success is a myth.
No one succeeds all by herself.”